“ I don’t know what to say, TJ is one of my bestest friends. We met when we both started trucking and became fast friends within a day. We ran many a mile both in training and on the phone together. I wish I had called more, I’d give anything to hear him talk right now, to hear him one more time, I never got to tell him I finally got out of trucking. I’ll miss you man. I got your loads covered, now go ride a big roller coaster for me
